SIRIUS

QUANTUM®
LED

The Mantis® Sirius X is the next generation flying insect management system for sophisticated front-of-house use. With the clean and futuristic design of the Mantis® Sirius, it continues to seamlessly blend into any restaurant, café, or hotel decor.

With sustainability and energy savings, two Quantum® X shatter-resistant lamps combined with a Quantum® X LED system glue board provide optimum flying insect attraction and capture.

The Quantum® X LED system glue board is perforated for two uses. Each glue board six-pack provides 12 glue board changes

The Sirius X can be horizontally or vertically wall-mounted. There is a punch-out hole in the back of the system for both hardwiring and hiding the power-outlet.
